Senior Accountant

ABOUT TINA

Let us introduce you to Tina Patrick! Tina is one of our wonderful Senior Accountants. We are fortunate to have her with us at CPN Legal. Tina comes from a unique educational background. She began her academic career as a paralegal and eventually gained a position as an Administrative Assistant. She so impressed her employer that they offered to send her back to school so she could earn a degree in accounting, graduating from Indiana Wesleyan in 2019. When the time came for a change, Tina made the decision to join our team and share her special skill set with our clients.

One of the things that drew Tina to CPN Legal was the family atmosphere. Family and community are fundamental parts of Tina. Being a part of a company that focuses on helping small businesses thrive aligns with her core values and helps make each day in the office a joy. Although, having an office dog certainly doesn't hurt. After work, you can often find Tina spending time with her family, her church community, or her own four-legged friend, a Bassett Hound named Wilbur. If we're lucky, she'll be in the kitchen baking a treat to share with family and friends.
