DAVID LIMBERT

Staff Accountant

David has been part of the extended CPN Legal family for a number of years. David excels in helping clients with not only monthly bookkeeping, but technology set up and migration as well. He takes on each clients' unique challenge as a puzzle to be solved with the best solution possible. This extends to the CPN Legal office – David is the go-to guy for behind the scenes technology support and administrative work.

Outside of the office, David is kept active by his water polo team. From June through October, David coaches water polo for a local high school. In the off season, he recharges by spending time with his family and exercising. He can be found relaxing with a puzzle-based video game to help keep his problem solving sharp.
