Ashley Champ is a Staff Accountant at CPN Legal and attended Columbia College. Her favorite part of working at CPN Legal is the positive, family-oriented work environment. Ashley likens working at CPN Legal and helping clients to “lighting a spark in a world that sometimes feels dim.” While her mother – who is also an accountant - drew her to the accounting profession, Ashley was drawn specifically to CPN Legal because of the great team members and the fact that it is a woman-owned business. She appreciates the flexibility of her job and would like prospective clients to know how diligent and trustworthy the entire staff of CPN Legal is.

Ashley and her husband have three young children, ages 12, 10, and 6, who keep them busy outside work. Ashley is deeply involved with her family, understanding that time goes by quickly leaving little time for anything else. She roots for the Florida State Seminoles and lists her favorite dog as a Dachshund.
